INDEX

The names of contributors are printed in SMALL CAPS; subjects in ordinary type; titles of books reviewed in italics

Act, Suspension of the Fisher, 364.
Administration, Supervised employment in university schools of business, 346.
Administrative coordination, 310.
Admission to college, Intelligence examinations and, 128.
Ambassadors, Student, 266.
American citizenship and history teaching, 195.
Americanism, The first missionary school of, 230.
Americanization in Pennsylvania, 257.
Americanization teachers, The training of, 224.
ANDERSON, FRANK V.—The evolution of workers' education, 384.
Annual report, President Butler's, 354.
Are the older "school virtues" obsolescent? 6.
Arguments against the Smith-Towner bill, A reply to the, 65.
ARMS, S. DWIGHT—The outlook for Latin, 41.
Arts and science, The dilemma of the college of, 277.
Association of urban universities, 91.
Associations, Progress of the international, 262.

BAGLEY, WILLIAM C.—Are the older "school virtues" obsolescent? 6.
Baltimore, The cooperative survey of, 175.
BAMBERGER, FLORENCE EILAU—Progressive education in public schools, 19.
Barometer of educational tendencies, The registrar's office as a, 148.
Bill, A reply to the arguments against the Smith-Towner, 65.
Bill again, The Smith-Towner, 70.
Bill, Progress of the Smith-Towner, 259.
BLISS, DON C.—Local school surveys, 93.
BOGART, E. L.—How and why economics should be taught in the high schools, 424.
Boise Survey, The, 454.
BOYD, W. W.—Corson's (Oscar T.) Our public schools, 165.
BRACKETT, HAVEN D.—Shall it be Latin or Greek? 334.
BREWER, JOHN M.—Should the schools teach labor problems? 399.
Brigg's (Thomas H.) The junior high schools, 83.
Building program of East Orange, The school, 89.
BUNKER, FRANK F.—The problem and the opportunity of the public school in Hawaii, 100.
Business administration, Supervised employment in university schools of, 346.
Butler's annual Report, President, 354.

Cambridge, Women at Oxford and, 365.
CAPEN, SAMUEL P.—The registrar's office as a barometer of educational tendencies, 148, and The dilemma of the college of arts and science, 277.
CHAMBERS, GEORGE GAILEY—Intelligence examinations and admission to college, 128.
Character of an English test, What should be the? 138.
Citizenship and the high school, 214.
Citizenship, History teaching and American, 195.
Citizenship, Political science and practical, 185.
City and rural region, A survey of a small, 177.
City, Survey of a wealthy small, 179.
COBB, STANWOOD—The essence of progressive education, 1.
Coffman's (Lotus D.) Teacher training departments in Minnesota high schools, 80.
College of arts and science, The dilemma of the, 277.
College, Intelligence examinations and admission to, 128.
College problems, Present day, 320.
College as a relief, The junior, 286.
College teachers of education, Program of the, 273.
Colleges, Labor union, 446.
Community and national life, Lessons in, 242.
Continuation school law and the employer, 153.
Cooperative survey of Baltimore, The, 175.
Coordination, Administrative, 310.

Cope's (Henry Frederick) Education for democracy, 248.
Corson's (Oscar T.) Our public schools, 165.
Course of study for the State of Pennsylvania, Revision of the, 87.

Davis, Calvin O.—Citizenship and the high school, 214.
Denver Opportunity School, The, 86.
Department of superintendence, Meeting of the, 269.
Didcoct, J. J.—Brigg's (Thomas H.) The junior high schools, 83.
Dilemma of the college of arts and science, The, 277.
Discussion of the Smith-Towner bill, Further, 54.
Discussions of the vocational educators, 274.
Dunham, James H.—A new orientation for the graduate school, 410.

Economics should be taught in the high schools, How and why, 424.
Edie's (Lionel D.) Current social and industrial forces, 253.
Education, The entrance of industry into, 369.
Education, The essence of progressive, 1.
Education, The evolution of workers', 384.
Education, Free nature, 452.
Education, A generation of progress in, 85.
Education in Hawaii, A survey of, 181.
Education, Program of the college teachers of, 273.
Education in public schools, Progressive, 19.
Education, A survey of religious, 456.
Education versus war, 237.
Education, The workers and, 381.
Educational experiment, An interesting, 11.
Educational measurements, Tendencies in, 117.
Educational progress, Intelligence tests and, 110.
Educational reform in France, 361.
Educational surveys, A survey of, 167.
Educational tendencies, The registrar's office as a barometer of, 148.
Educators, Discussion of the vocational, 274.
East Orange, The school building program of, 89.
Employer, Continuation school law and the, 153.
Employment in university schools of business administration, Supervised, 346.
Engelhardt's (N. L.) and Strayer's (George Drayton) The classroom teacher at work in American schools, 162.
English test, What should be the character of an? 138.
Entrance of industry into education, The, 369.
Essence of progressive education, The, 1.
Ettinger, William L.—Continuation school law and the employer, 153.
Evans, Jessie C.—Cope's (Henry Frederick) Education for democracy, 248.
Evolution of workers' education, The, 384.
Examinations and admission to college, Intelligence, 128.
Experiment, An interesting educational, 11.
Ex-service undergraduate, The, 298.

First missionary school of Americanism, The, 230.
Fisher Act, Suspension of the, 364.
France, Educational reform in, 361.
Free nature education, 452.
Further discussion of the Smith-Towner bill, 54.

Generation of progress in education, A, 85.
Gompers, Samuel—The workers and education, 381.
Graduate school, A new orientation for the, 410.
Graves, Katharine B.—Hollingworth's (Leta S.) The psychology of subnormal children, 255.
Gray, Robert Floyd—The training of Americanization teachers, 224.
Gray, William S.—Sechrist's (Frank K.) Education and the general welfare, 433.
Greek, Shall it be Latin or? 334.

Hawaii, The problem and the opportunity of the public school in, 100.
Helping workers to think, 389.
High school, Citizenship and the, 214.
High schools, How and why economics should be taught in the, 424.
History teaching and American citizenship, 195.
Hobbs, William Herbert.—History teaching and American citizenship, 195.

HOBSON, ELSIE GARLAND.—The progressive private school, 31.
Hollingworth's (Leta S.) The psychology of subnormal children, 255.
How and why economics should be taught in the high schools, 424.
Hudson's (Jay William) The College and new America, 350.
HUNT, ROCKWELL D.—Political science and practical citizenship, 185.

Industry into education, The entrance of, 369.
Intelligence examinations and admission to college, 128.
Intelligence tests and educational progress, 110.
Interesting educational experiment, An, 11.
International associations, Progress of the, 262.

JONES, ARTHUR J.—Koos's (Leonard V.) The junior high school, 82.
Junior college as a relief, The, 286.

KILPATRICK, WILLIAM HEARD.—Our schools and war, 201.
Klapper's (Paul) College teaching, 351.
KOOS, LEONARD V.—Coffman's (Lotus D.) Teacher training departments in Minnesota high schools, 80.
Koos's (Leonard V.) The junior high school, 82.

Labor problems, Should the schools teach? 399.
Labor union colleges, 446.
Latin or Greek, Shall it be? 334.
Latin, The outlook for, 41.
Law, Why the Smith-Towner bill should not become a, 54.
Legalized profiteering, 358.
Lessons in community and national life, 242.
Life, Lessons in community and national, 242.
Local school surveys, 93.
Local survey of Scranton, A, 180.

MAGRUDER, WILLIAM T.—The junior college as a relief, 286.
MANN, CHARLES R.—Why the Smith-Towner bill should not become a law, 54.
MCKENZIE, FAYETTE AVERY.—Moton's (Robert Russa) Finding a way out, 251.
MEAD, ARTHUR R.—Tendencies in educational measurements, 117.
Measurements, Tendencies in educational, 117.
Meeting of the department of superintendence, 269.
Memphis school survey, The, 169.
MESSER, WILLIAM STUART.—The ex-service undergraduate, 298.
MICHEL, VIRGIL G.—The Smith-Towner bill again, 70.
MILLER, WILLIAM OTTO.—Administrative coordination, 310.
Missionary school of Americanism, The first, 230.
MITCHELL BROADUS.—Helping workers to think, 389.
Montana maintains her record, 261.
Moton's (Robert Russa) Finding a way out, 251.
MUZZEY, D. S.—Edie's (Lionel D.) Current social and industrial forces, 253.
MYERS, GARRY C.—The first missionary school of Americanism, 230.
MYERS, JOSEPH S.—Present day college problems, 320.

National life, Lessons in community and, 242.
Nature education, Free, 452.
New orientation for the graduate school, A, 410.
New paganism, The, 357.

Obsolescent, Are the older "school virtues?" 6.
Office as a barometer of educational tendencies, The registrar's 148.
Older "school virtues" obsolescent, Are the? 6.
Opportunity of the public school in Hawaii, The problem and the, 100.
Opportunity School, The Denver, 86.
Orange, The school building program of East, 89.
Orientation for the graduate school, A new, 410.
O'SHEA, M. V.—Strayer's (George Drayton) and Engelhardt's (N. L.) The classroom teacher at work in American schools, 162.
Our schools and war, 201.
Outlook for Latin, The, 41.
Oxford and Cambridge, Women at, 365.

Paganism, The new, 357.
Pargment's (M. S.) Exercices Francais, 443.
Pennsylvania, Americanization in, 257.

Pennsylvania, Revision of the course of study for the State of, 87.
Philadelphia, The state survey of, 176.
Political science and practical citizenship, 185.
POWER, RALPH L.—Supervised employment in university schools of business administration, 346.
Preliminary survey of Washington, A, 173.
Present day college problems, 320.
President Butler's annual report, 354.
Private school, The progressive, 31.
Problem and the opportunity of the public school in Hawaii, The, 100.
Problems, Present day college, 320.
Problems, Should the schools teach labor? 399.
Profiteering, Legalized, 358.
Program of the college teachers of education, 273.
Program of East Orange, The school building, 89.
Progress in education, A generation of, 85.
Progress of the international associations, 262.
Progress, Intelligence tests and educational, 110.
Progress of the Smith-Towner bill, 259.
Progressive education, The essence of, 1.
Progressive education in public schools, 19.
Progressive private school, The, 31.
Prospectus, Our, 366.
Public school in Hawaii, The problem and the opportunity of the, 100.
Public schools, Progressive education in, 19.
PYLE, J. FREEMAN.—Lessons in community and national life, 242.

Record, Montana maintains her, 261.
Reform in France, Educational, 361.
Region, A survey of a small city and rural, 177.
Registrar's office as a barometer of educational tendencies, The, 148.
Relief, The junior college as a, 286.
Religious education, A survey, 456.
Reorganization of science in secondary schools, 453.
Reply to the arguments against the Smith-Towner bill, A, 65.
Report, President Butler's annual, 354.
Revision of the course of study for the State of Pennsylvania, 87.
ROGERS, AGNES L.—Intelligence tests and educational progress, 110.
SAYRES, W. C.—What should be the character of an English test? 138.
School of Americanism, The first missionary, 230.
School building program of East Orange, The, 89.
School, Citizenship and the high, 214.
School, The Denver Opportunity, 86.
School in Hawaii, The problem and the opportunity of the public, 100.
School law and the employer, Continuation, 153.
School, A new orientation for the graduate, 410.
School, The progressive private, 31.
School survey, The Memphis, 169.
School surveys, Local, 93.
Schools teach labor problems, Should the? 399.
"School virtues" obsolescent, Are the older? 6.
Schools of business administration. Supervised employment in university, 346.
Schools, How and why economics should be taught in the high, 424.
Schools, Progressive education in public, 19.
Schools, Reorganization of science in secondary, 453.
Schools and war, Our, 201.
Science, The dilemma of the college of arts and, 277.
Science and practical citizenship, Political, 185.
Science in secondary schools, Reorganization of, 453.
Scranton, A local survey of, 180.
Sechrist's (Frank K.) Education and the general welfare, 433.
Secondary schools, Reorganization of science in, 453.
Shall it be Latin of Greek? 334.
Should the schools teach labor problems? 399.
SIEBERT, WILBUR H.—Tuell's (Harriet E.) The study of nations, 434.
SINGER, EDGAR A.—Spengler's (Oswald) The death of the western world, 437.
SMITH, EUGENE RANDOLPH.—An interesting educational experiment, 11.
Smith-Towner bill again, The, 70.
Smith-Towner bill, Further discussion of the, 54.
Smith-Towner bill, Progress of the, 259.
Smith-Towner bill, A reply to the arguments against the, 65.

Smith-Towner bill should not become a law, Why the, 54.
Spengler's (Oswald) The death of the western world, 437.
State of Pennsylvania, Revision of the course of study for the, 87.
State survey of Philadelphia, The, 176.
STRAYER, GEORGE D.—A reply to the arguments against the Smith-Towner bill, 65.
Strayer's (George Drayton) and Engelhardt's (N. L.) The classroom teacher at work in American schools, 162.
Student ambassadors, 266.
Study for the State of Pennsylvania, Revision of the course of, 87.
Superintendence, Meeting of the department of, 269.
Supervised employment in university schools of business administration, 346.
Survey of Baltimore, The cooperative, 175.
Survey, The Boise, 454.
Survey of eduction in Hawaii, A, 181.
Survey of educational surveys, A, 167.
Survey, The Memphis school, 169.
Survey of Philadelphia, The State, 176.
Survey of religious education, A, 456.
Survey of Scranton, A local, 180.
Survey of a small city and rural region A, 177.
Survey of Washington, A preliminary, 173.
Survey of a wealthy small city, 179.
Survey, The Wilmington, 171.
Surveys, A survey of educational, 167.
Surveys, Local school, 93.
Suspension of the Fisher Act, 364.

Teachers of education, Program of the college, 273.
Teachers, The training of Americanization, 224.
Teaching and American citizenship, History, 195.
Teaching thrift, 449.
Tendencies in educational measurements, 117.
Tendencies, The registrar's office as a barometer of educational, 148.
Test, What should be the character of an English? 138.
Tests and educational progress, intelligence, 110.
Thrift, teaching, 449.
Training of Americanization teachers, The, 224.
Tuell's (Harriet E.) The study of nations, 434.
TURNER, EGBERT M.—Klapper's (Paul) College teaching, 351.
TWISS, GEORGE R.—Virginia Public Schools (Educational Survey Series), 160.
TYLER, H. W.—Hudson's (Jay William) The college and new America, 350.

Undergraduate, The ex-service, 298.
Union colleges, Labor, 446.
University schools of business administration, Supervised employment in, 346.
Universities, Association of urban, 91.
Urban universities, Association of, 91.

Virginia Public Schools (Educational Survey Series), 160.
Vocational educators, Discussions of the, 274.

War, Our schools and, 201.
War versus education, 237.
WEEKS, RAYMOND.—Pargment's (M. S.) Exercices Francais, 443.
WEGNER, HENRY C.—Education versus war, 237.
What should be the character of an English test? 138.
Why the Smith-Towner bill should not become a law, 54.
Wilmington survey, The, 171.
WITHROW, JAMES R.—The entrance of industry into education, 369.
Women at Oxford and Cambridge, 365.
Workers and education, The, 381.
Workers' education, The evolution of, 384.
Workers to think, Helping, 389.